KANSAS HEALTH INSTITUTE
Informing Policy. Improving Health.

Nov. 5, 2026

Convening Resource Guide

Understanding the Rise in Uninsured Children in Kansas

On Nov. 5, 2026, the Kansas Health Institute convened policymakers, advocates and partners to examine why an increasing number of Kansas children went without health insurance between 2022 and 2024. Use this guide to dive deeper into key resources, reflect on discussion questions and capture your thoughts or takeaways.

Watch the recording here!

Stay Connected

Visit khi.org to explore more resources on health and public health policy.

Register for upcoming events.

For general inquiries or help connecting with the right expert, contact info@khi.org.

Follow us on social media @KHIorg.

Resources

Explore how the uninsured rate among Kansas children rose from 2022 to 2024, who was most affected and where they live in new KHI Fact Sheet.
bit.ly/Uninsured-Children

Explore key findings from Kansas Health Institute's 2026 Annual Insurance Update, including uninsured rates, disparities in coverage and trends in how Kansans get insurance.
bit.ly/AIU-2026

Use the interactive information hub to see insurance coverage sources and uninsured populations by county, legislative and congressional district and urban-rural area.
bit.ly/kansas-health-coverage

Continued on second page.

Convening Resource Guide

Understanding the Rise in Uninsured Children in Kansas

Discussion Questions

- What do you see as the most important implications of more Kansas children being uninsured?
- What options could help more Kansas children have health coverage, and what trade-offs should be considered?

Notes and Key Takeaways