- Pay Attention to “What You Should Know About Unwinding Data” for important context through which the data should be viewed
- As of June 6, initiated renewals for members with renewal months in April, May and June 2023
- Most applications are still in process so the number of individuals renewed/discontinued appears low in relation to the number of renewals sent out

Unwinding Data

- “90-day window” for discontinued members has not yet completed
- For members who had renewals due on April 1 and their eligibility were terminated as of May 1, they have until July 30 any additional information
- If proved ongoing eligibility, they will be reinstated back to May 1
- The “90-day window” figure is fluid and won’t have a complete picture of the April renewals until after that 90-day window concludes
